THE GIFT OF CHRISTMAS

JUDY — YOUR CHRISTMAS CD ARRIVED AND I TREATED MYSELF TO IT THIS MORNING OVER A WARM CUP OF TEA. It was so full of love that it made my tea taste even sweeter! Thanks for starting my day off with beauty.

- CATHY CRUM, Author, Children's Musical Productions

"THERE IS A SWEET FRIENDSHIP IN THESE SONGS AND STORIES, which are as great a blessing as the Christmas season they welcome. The album calls forth a much needed peace into the world."

- PETER BLOCK, Author of Community: The Structure of Belonging, The Answer to How is Yes, and Flawless Consulting

This Little Light: The Gift of Christmas is really two recordings: Part 1 is a narrative of short stories and well-known carols woven together to help you relax, refresh, and return to center. Part 2 offers the option of listening to the carols alone, including additions.

I've wanted to do a Christmas recording for a long time. Something about Christmas and its lightness of spirit inspires me. Because I love Christmas and love to sing and tell stories, This Little Light: The Gift of Christmas came to be.

In this recording, I collaborated with other bright lights: Chris Magruder of Thundering Sky Studio, who combines top level recording skills with sensitivity to his clients' work; and Woody Allen—talented musician partner—who performs on all my CDs.

I also want to thank: Tom and Cathy Crum for leading me into the world of intentional energy and for their unceasing support; my mother Lorna—singer, gentle heart, and my first and most loyal fan; and my husband Jim for your love, encouragement and fearless editing support.

In my work as a conflict and communication skills trainer, I often help remove obstacles to light. What brightens yours? What weakens it? Can you be more intentional about extending it?

However you do it, whatever brightens your light—find it and let it shine.
